

For one delicious day, Thursday, October 10, 2019, local restaurants, bakeries and coffeehouses across the Greater Houston area pledge to participate in the Susan G. Komen® Houston Dine Out for the Cure. This event unites local restaurants with Komen Houston's supporters during National Breast Cancer Awareness Month. The money raised helps women and men who are fighting breast cancer every day.

Komen Houston is committed to saving lives locally and fighting breast cancer globally. We are the only local breast cancer organization attacking the disease on all fronts through education, screening, treatment, support, advocacy and research. We serve women and men battling breast cancer by removing barriers to care and eliminating health disparities throughout Harris, Brazoria, Fort Bend, Galveston, Montgomery, Chambers and Liberty counties.

Did you know?

437,500 (1 in 8) women will be diagnosed with breast cancer in the Greater Houston area in their lifetime. Early detection and effective treatment provide the best chance of survival from breast cancer. And that's what Komen Houston is all about. We provide the most critical services in the Houston area and invest in breakthrough research to prevent and cure breast cancer.
